

the brain injury association

Supported by

Recent Developments in the Management of ABI

2015 Conference

Perspectives on Managing Acquired Brain Injury

Catrin Finch Centre, Glyndwr University Wrexham

WEDNESDAY 25 NOVEMBER 2015

Headway UK Certificate of Attendance provided.

Benefits of attending

- Hear about leading-edge developments in the field of treating and managing ABIs
- Network with fellow healthcare professionals, brain injury survivors and their families
- Join the debate on the latest policy changes
- Receive a Headway UK Certificate of Attendance

Who should attend?

- GPs
- Occupational Therapists
- Neurological / Neurorehabilitation Consultants
- Physiotherapists
- Carers
- ABI survivors and their families
- Speech and Language Therapists
- Case Managers
- Psychologists
- Psychiatrists
- Mental Health professionals

Programme

Chaired by Bill Braithwaite QC, Head of Exchange Chambers

9.15am Registration

9.45am Introduction and welcome

Speakers include:

Dr Samantha Fisher, neuropsychologist with Cardiff & Vale UHB NHS Wales

Prof Oliver Turnbull, neuropsychologist, academic and pro vice chancellor at Bangor University

Dr Andrew Bateman, physiotherapist, neuropsychologist and head of the Oliver Zangwill Centre in Cambridgeshire

Dr Kevin Foy, neuropsychiatrist from the Walton Centre in Liverpool

Booking

For more information about this event please call Dave Maggs at Headway on 01446 740 130

Costs

Qualified professionals	£30
Trainees and students	£10
Headway members	FREE
Brain injury survivors plus one family member	FREE

All proceeds from the event will go to Headway branches across North Wales to support their valuable contribution to the field of treating and managing ABIs.